Perfect for both professional and amateur athletes, they give your muscles a boost; whether it's for pre-endurance or for recovery.

VITAMIN INJECTIONS

Our Booster shots deliver vitamins and nutrients directly into your body to a reservoir for continuous mineral release and days of energy (not just hours). Unlike energy drinks or supplements, Boostershots have the highest level of absorption, providing you with a healthy boost of wellness for days; and they take just seconds to administer!

MAINTAIN STRONG BONES
IMPROVE TEETH HEALTH
FIGHT VITAMIN D DEFICIENCY
BOOST THE IMMUNE SYSTEM

The D3 Boost is a vitamin and nutrient IM injection packed with Vitamin D-3, a crucial vitamin that ensures our bones absorb calcium in order to develop and maintain bone growth. It is also known to fight disease, promote weight loss and fend off depression. If you're not getting enough Vitamin D-rich food (fatty fish like tuna or salmon, cheese or beef liver) the D3 Boost is perfect for you.
